ABUELA

The Abuela Stool reflects the uniqueness of the details and the clean design of the entire collection. Made of techno-polymer and available in two different sizes, the stool has a perfectly proportioned shape and suit both indoor and outdoor environments. Comfortable, light and simply stackable, Abuela Stool utilize the particular stacking system adopted by Gaber for its stools, ensuring product's aesthetic conditions are maintained for a long time, protecting it from wear. AKAMI STOOL

The Akami stackable stool stands out for its perfect seating ergonomics and for the technical design that summarizes, in a few essential features, a sophisticated and recognizable collection. Thanks to its special 1034 elliptical holes in the back, the stool itself is able to breathe while the user experiences a sense of general well-being, even during prolonged use. The handle integrated into the design of the shell makes for easy moving around. The stool offers the possibility of a comfortable cushion or a fully padded and upholstered version.

ALHAMBRA

The unique style and harmony of the geometric texture that draws its surfaces makes Alhambra a barstool with a strong personality and an unmistakable sense of beauty through form, thanks also to the development and application of an innovative patented production process. Alhambra is made of multi-colored technopolymer shells which fit different frames, creating highly personalised barstools suitable to match all manner of concepts and surroundings. The collection is enriched by the new version Alhambra ST Stool, with more generous sizes, made with a new sled frame. A finely tailored dedicated cover always with great attention to detail.

AMITHA

Amitha barstools are the natural completion of the Forsix-designed collection, fitting perfectly into hospitality settings, both indoors and out. This steel tube stackable barstool is treated for outdoor use and has a matt finish. The available colourways have been selected to match some of the most popular Gaber outdoor high table collections, ensuring co-ordinated in and outdoor settings.

ARTESIA

Its design, conceived by Forsix, is the perfect blend of sobriety and technique, combined with a product created for use in conference rooms, waiting areas, meetings or public spaces. Thanks to the clean lines, the Artesia collection fits perfectly and with elegance to the most prestigious hospitality settings: the perfect partner for hotels, restaurants and bars. The Artesia stool is stackable and made from a technopolymer shell and a metal rod frame, both available in vibrant trendy colors.
